

The System of Strategy

offers a:

Personal Defense Seminar

presented by James Willams

“Personal safety is the foundation of the sense of well being in human beings. When we are empowered by knowledge and ability to be able to not just feel safe but to be safe it has a very positive effect on our lives. This personal empowerment allows us to live a healthier, happier life and increases self-confidence. This seminar is about living a safer, happier life. This is accomplished by understanding our fears and gaining the tools to provide solutions to them.”
